

Downtown Phoenix Overview

Downtown Phoenix is where history meets innovation, showcasing Phoenix's historic town site, its recent revitalization and continued resurgence. Between 2005 to the present, the broader 1.7 square mile redevelopment area has been infused with more than $5.5 billion in investment in the areas of transportation, office, residential, education and research, technology, arts, culture, sports, restaurants/nightlife and hospitality.

RETAIL

Currently, Downtown has 800,000 SF of retail space including 200,000 SF at CityScape. The retail market of Downtown Phoenix contains a diverse mix of local boutiques, restaurants, bars, lounges and retail stores. Two major retail projects are currently under construction; the building of Fry's Grocery Store at First St. and Washington and the renovation of the iconic Arizona Center.

OFFICE

Downtown Phoenix is the historical financial and civic center of Arizona and is quickly becoming the epicenter for innovation and company growth. There are more than 8 million square feet of existing office space in the Downtown core, with another 1 million square feet under construction. Downtown office buildings offer tenants the unique opportunity of placing signage atop the towers which is visible from the I-10 and I-17 freeways, the Sky Harbor Airport flight path and during major sporting events. Downtown also offers unique space in older structures and warehouse buildings. Demand for Downtown office space continues as employers look to take advantage of the light-rail system and provide their employees with an amenity-rich, walkable and collaborative working environment. New projects set to deliver in 2018/2019 include 200,000 square feet of open-concept space in the Warehouse District, a new high-rise tower at Block 23, 300,000 square feet in the Roosevelt Row neighborhood, and the refurbishment of several legacy buildings; Renaissance Towers, The Heard Building, the Maricopa County Jail into usable office space and 111 W. Monroe.

EDUCATION AND RESEARCH

Downtown has risen over the past 10 years into a strong center for innovation, biomedical collaboration and education. All three major Arizona universities maintain a Downtown campus with more construction planned.

Major Downtown Education/Research Building Development:

ASU opened its Downtown Campus in 2006 with the College of Nursing and Healthcare Innovation, the University College, the College of Public Programs, School of Criminology and the Walter Cronkite School of Journalism. The Sandra Day O'Connor School of Law relocated to Downtown to the new ASU Center for Law & Society in 2016. Currently, 12,000 students attend class at the ASU Downtown Campus with 15,000 students projected by 2020.

Recent growth continues with the world-renowned Thunderbird School of Global Management relocating Downtown in Fall 2018. ASU, in partnership with Wexford Science and Technology, will build an additional 1.5 million square feet of biomedical space over the next several years. The first 225,000 square feet will deliver at the end of 2019.

The 28 acre Phoenix Biomedical Campus, devoted to biomedical research facilities and the University of Arizona College of Medicine in Phoenix, has grown to 1.6 million square feet. The College of Medicine opened a Phoenix Campus in 2007. The Health Sciences Education Building was completed in 2012 and joins the Arizona Biomedical Collaborative 1 (ABC1) and the nationally recognized International Genomics Consortium and Translational Genomics Research Institute (IGC/TGEN). Construction was completed on the University of Arizona Cancer Center at 7th Street & Fillmore in 2015. The 245,000 sq ft, 10-story Biosciences Partnership building opened in 2017.
