ISLANDER: A NEW

MUSICAL Herberger
Theater Center: *There is a girl. She stares out to sea and dreams of a new life beyond her lonely island.
Myth and reality collide when the tide washes a mysterious stranger onto her beach. Islander's music and story transport you on a magical journey, combining a contemporary Scottish folk/pop-inspired score and epic storytelling.
Two performers create a world of characters while weaving, building, and layering their voices through the ingenious incorporation of live looping technology. This innovative approach
produces a mesmerizing, immersive auditory soundscape that transports your senses and stirs your imagination. Don't miss this internationally acclaimed hit that tells the story of a community in peril and two young people finding connection inside it. Center Stage. $58 - $78. 7:00 PM.

LET THE GOOD TIMES ROLL: A NEW ORLEANS GUMBO - FESTIVAL OF NEW AMERICAN THEATRE

The Phoenix Theatre Company: A ride through the music, the spirit, and the unquenchable thirst for joy and "more life" that defines the city known as The Big Easy. Featuring songs of many eras, from Jelly Roll Morton and Bessie Smith to Fats Domino, Randy Newman, The Meters, Dr. John, Harry Connick, Jr., and The Neville Brothers, it traces the tale of a heartbroken young woman who discovers it is possible – in fact inevitable – to be reborn in the "city that care forgot." With six performers representing the wide range of population of one of the most diverse cities in the world, Let The Good Times Roll: A New Orleans Gumbo takes audiences on a ride through history, hardship, and ultimate triumph that is the hallmark of a place where even major catastrophes are somehow always overcome by faith in the future, and an unbridled enjoyment of the present. $20. 3:00 PM. 1825 N Central Ave 602-254-2151 phoenixtheatre.com 1/12 & 1/14.
